Open Comment(s)

Corporal Kotuby – PA State Police – A PSP representative tries to get to one meeting a month in each municipality in Butler County. Corporal Kotuby gave statistics of calls in and around the Township since September of 2023: (10) criminal mischief investigations, (20) vehicle crashes (5 DUI, 1 fatal), (60) traffic stops (9 DUI), (7) assaults, (6) burglaries, (9) disorderly conducts, (10) drug arrests. The Supervisors made Corporal Kotuby aware of a party that is said to be occurring at University Village on Saturday, March 2, without permits from Slippery Rock Township or approval from the ownership of University Village.

Scott Albert – SRU – Project updates: SRU is responding to the comments on the NPDES permit for Kasnevich Field, the pond dredging and culvert installation under Kiester Road will be bid out next month, the renovations to the old SRU Union are still on track to finish in July 2024, the ARC roof will begin in the next month or so. SRU will be soliciting input from SR Township and the local community to start a mini master plan for athletic and outdoor recreation spaces on the SRU Campus.

Dave Hollenbaugh – SRU – Explained that it is probable that SRU will be able to shift the funding from the RACP Grant that was awarded to build the ROTC/Police building to the Cozy Homes Senior Living project since the ROTC/Police Building has been discontinued.

Terry Doerr made a motion to sign the modifications to the RACP grant application to shift the focus of the funding to the Cozy Homes project from the ROTC/Police Project. John Hines seconded and the motion carried unanimously.
